

Hear Ye, Hear Ye!

All Lords & Ladies

(19) If any assizes came the administration of a serious office correct
his husband
(24) Carlo and barons assessed upon the same ancient obligation to and nothing shall remain produces royal letters ;
the debt, as assessed by debt is due to the Crown his movable goods are off
(29) He comtable may do it. It might taken o for transact from any
We will not see
(33) All high-ways sh
issued to anyone in reas and corn (the London qu
be grandeur

(27) If a man holds land that belongs to the crown of lands that he holds on trial upon his own unproven or outlawed or gilded, or the law of the land. (Y) within it, by land or un from a country that is justice have discovered any man to leave and return of the realm. People t a court, as will suffice for gree of his offence, and for understand the implications of the neighbourhood.

ark in holy orders shall be ivers except those with an country, hundred, manerake, a, a sheriff or royal official Dead man to the value of the Dead man a will. If no a free man dies intestate, his comarable or other royal f this.
gely some other fit man to shall take horses or carts consent of the owner. (92a)
the 'fees' concerned.
cipe shall not in future be dard measures of wine, ale, selvedges. Weights are to s, and not refused.

of his heir, nor of the land diarship of a man's heir, or official shall place a man of his rights or possessions, judgement of his equals or by ear, and may aray or travel time of war to merchants perty, until me or our chief ture it shall be lawful for sure. For the common benefi chants - who shall be dealt

... onies, at his death his heir in manner as the baron held fully involved in proceedings in the law of the realm and ship of them when there is shall be treated similarly.
originated in every country by self justice if we are not in for legal service.

... are Engelands de Cigoue, call their fellowmen (St) de
... arini, with horses and arms
... these. In cases of dispute
... here a man was deprived or
... held by others under our
... ore we took the Cross as a

